

ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

U.S. LAYOFFS RISE 38 % – HIGHEST LEVEL SINCE 2009

Michael Snyder reports from the U S. Sept 5/2019

We continue to get more numbers that indicate that U.S. economic activity is really starting to slow down. The number of layoffs in the U S was 38 percent higher in August than it was in July. A 38 percent increase in one month is more than just a little bit startling.

About 40% of Americans still struggle to pay bills — even for something as basic as food. Think about the fact itself for a second — 40% of people in the world’s richest country struggle to afford food. It’s a “Let Them Eat Cake” moment happening before our eyes.

All of the other economic numbers that have been rolling in lately also confirm that the U.S. economy is heading into hard times. But is our country ready to handle another major economic downturn?

Job cuts rose 38 percent over July, with 53,480 positions to be slashed from employer payrolls. “Employers are beginning to feel the effects of the trade war and imposed tariffs by both the US and China.”

“Employers are beginning to feel the effects of the trade war and imposed tariffs by both the US and China.”

Other nations are really starting to feel the effects of the trade war as well. This week, Germany reported a startling drop in new manufacturing orders

During the second quarter, German GDP growth fell into negative territory, and it looks like that will happen again here in the third quarter. That would mean that Germany is already in a recession right now, and that is very troubling news for all of Europe.

The U.S. government already hands out money and benefits to more than 100 million people every month, and yet our problems just continue to escalate.

Remember this prophecy of James?

“Come now, you rich, weep and wail because of the miseries that are coming upon you. Your wealth has become rotten, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver have corroded, and their corrosion will testify against you and will consume your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the Last Days!” (James 5:1-3)

NETANYAHU WARNS HAMAS VIA EGYPT: IDF IS SET FOR GAZA WAR – EVEN IF IT MEANS DELAYING THE ELECTION

SEPT 9, 2019. Israel stands ready for a major war against the Palestinian terrorist organizations of the Gaza Strip. PM/Defence Minister Binyamin Netanyahu relayed this warning to Hamas via the Egyptian intelligence delegation which arrived in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, September 8 and went into conference with Hamas leader Yahye Sinwar.

The message warned Hamas that the escalating attacks on Israel and threats of violence of late had prompted a decision in Jerusalem to opt for a general war as the only way to put a stop to the terror harassment ongoing year after year.

This message was Israel's last warning and final notice to Hamas.

More attacks and its failure to uphold its commitments for reining in its people and those of its allies, in keeping with standing undertakings, would have one consequence, the prime minister warned.

The IDF already had its orders and is standing ready to launch a comprehensive military campaign against Hamas and the other terrorist organizations operating in the Gaza Strip.

At the end of the message, reliable sources report, Netanyahu emphasized that Hamas and its leaders would be seriously mistaken if they expected Israel's September 17 election to delay its Gaza operation.

Quite the opposite. The election will be delayed. Israel's political parties will join forces to postpone the election until after it is over.

This was the first time that the prime minister had suggested a possible postponement of the general election due to a war situation, in view of its almost certainly involving the civilian population as well.

This message is seen by our sources as the prime minister's reply to the Iranian-Hizballah conspiracy to step up the violence on Israel's borders in order to topple him and his Likud party at the forthcoming poll.

This conspiracy was hatched at a secret war counsel in Beirut on August 28 by the IRGC commander General Hossein Salami, Al Qods chief General Qassem Soleimani and Hizballah's Hassan Nasrallah.

Netanyahu's final warning to Hamas on Sunday turned the tables on the conspirators with the information that the key election on which they had counted for his ouster would not take place amid rising aggression – but postponed.

Remember what Yahweh the Almighty has said through Obadiah, about the House Of Esau (the Palestinians):

“For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations: as you have done, it shall be done unto you: your reward shall return upon your own head. For as you have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the nations drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall become as though they had never existed Then the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame. But the house of Esau will be as stubble, and they will set them on fire and devour them; and there will not be any survivor of the house of Esau.” (Obadiah 15- 18)

IRANIAN WOMEN FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

"The Islamic Republic authorities say 'compulsory hijab' is the law and must be obeyed. However, bad laws must be challenged and changed." — Masih Alinejad, Iranian-American journalist and award-winning activist.

"The basis of this tyranny is the religious law that the government has been enforcing since the 1979 revolution. Women are second-class citizens, and essentially slaves in Iran. The international community needs to have the courage to delegitimize religious law and call it out for its tyrannical nature. Just as the free world delegitimized communism during the Cold War, it should do the same to religious law." — Nasrin Mohammadi, author of Ideas and Lashes: The Prison Diary of Akbar Mohammadi, about the torture and death in prison of her late brother; to Gatestone Institute.

Three Iranian women held in Tehran's notorious Qarchak prison were sentenced recently to what could amount to more than 10 years in prison. Their "crime"? Failing to wear headscarves, thereby defying the country's dress code. - By Uzay Bulut • AUG 29.

SEX SLAVES BEING HELD FOR RANSOM BY IRAN

Young Yazidi sex slaves kidnapped by ISIS in Iraq are being held in Iran and are up for sale. The girls were transferred to Iran by Iranian soldiers from the Syrian city of Kobani, which was once a stronghold of ISIS.

According to Iraqi Yazidi activist Ali Elchansuri, there is a significant number of kidnapped Yazidi girls – and boys — being held in Iran for the last two years.

Two of the girls, ages 13-14, and were kidnapped by ISIS when the terror group took over the Sinjar region in Iraq in the summer of 2014. During that siege, most of the men and older boys were killed, and the women and girls — some as young as six — were taken as sex slaves. The younger boys were made into ISIS fighters. Iranian officials will only release the children after they have been identified – and for a price.

Elchansuri said, “The source of this information asked me to come to Iran and said he would set up a meeting for me with the head of the orphanage where they are being held, and if I recognize them, I can take them. But the same source told me that his ‘friend’ will demand $20,000 for each girl – meaning $40,000 for the two girls.”

In Syria, another Yazidi activist, Eisa Saadu, reported that a kidnapped Yazidi girl was killed by ISIS women inside the Al Hawl refugee camp in northeast Syria. The girl, who was in her 20s, was beaten to death by ISIS women and their families in the camp. The girl was originally kidnapped by ISIS in the Sinjar region of Iraq in August 2014 and was killed in the camp because she tried to escape.

The Al Hawl camp, which houses 74,000 people from 43 different countries, is known to be one of the most dangerous places in Syria, housing ISIS families – women, children and foreign male fighters — and their supporters. Thrown into the camp together with them are other refugees from Syria.

“It is a very dangerous place,” commented Ran Meir, Clarion’s Arab affairs analyst and Shillman Fellow. “We can assume that the women in this camp have weapons and other means of death and destruction. Children parade with ISIS flags, pledging their support to this brutal terror organization.

“Even though ISIS has officially been defeated in Syria, ISIS controls this camp with the same brutal laws they enacted when they took over towns in Syria and Iraq. Yazidi slaves are still being held and hidden inside these camps. This Yazidi girl didn’t have a chance – her only choice was to continue living under ISIS or be killed.”

SYRIAN CIVIL WAR HAS DAMAGED MORE THAN 120 CHURCHES

As many as 124 churches have been damaged or targeted by military forces on all sides of Syria's civil war, which has stretched on for more than eight years, according to a new report by the Syrian Network for Human Rights (SNHR).

NAURU BECOMES NEXT COUNTRY TO RECOGNIZE JERUSALEM

Sept 2, 2019. The tiny Pacific island of Nauru has become the latest country to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital, following in the footsteps of a number of countries, with the US at their head. The declaration came after diplomatic negotiations by PM Netanyahu, Foreign Minister Yisrael Katz and the Nauruan embassy in Israel.

HEZBOLLAH FALURE Reported by Amir Tsarfati

The attempt of Hezbollah to avenge their humiliation from last week resulted with an even greater one. Sunday afternoon, a few Russian anti-tank Kornet rockets were fired by their terrorists at an Israeli armored vehicle along the border. All missiles missed their targets. Israel deceived Hezbollah by pretending that we had casualties. The Iranian proxy quickly announced that it is no longer interested in any escalation. Believing that Israel was hurt badly, Hezbollah started celebrating in the streets of Beirut and southern Lebanon. Little did they know that the alleged Israeli casualties were nothing but healthy soldiers who returned back to their units that same night.

Iran is defeated and so is Turkey. From the promise of the Sunni world and the rescuers of the trapped rebels in northern Syria, Turkey has turned into a passive bystander watching a literal genocide of nearly 3 million Sunni Muslims being butchered from the air by Putin and on the ground by Bashar Al-Assad. Russia is trying to help Iran bypass the oil sales embargo and recently started collaborating with Sudan. We are not only watching Israel bloom, but we are witnessing the entire Ezekiel coalition form before our very eyes.

LEBANESE PM REJECTS RESPONSIBILITY FOR HEZBOLLAH

SEPT 4, 2019. Lebanese PM Saad Hariri claims no responsibility for the actions of Hezbollah within Lebanon. Hariri says: "Look, Hezbollah is not a Lebanese problem — only — it is a regional problem; Israel will not distinguish between Lebanon and Hezbollah; Katz: What happened in 2006 during the Second Lebanon War, where Israel distinguished between Lebanon and Hezbollah, won't happen again."

Y'shua our coming Master says:

"These things I have spoken to you,
so that in Me you may have peace.
In the world you will have tribulation, but take courage! I have overcome the world."

John 16:33
