

DONALD TRUMP ANNOUNCES PEACE BETWEEN ISRAEL & UAE

President Donald Trump announced the “Abraham Accord” on August 13. This agreement will attempt to normalise relations between Israel and the United Arab Emirates (UAE).

“For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.” (1 Thessalonians 5:3)

Israel and the United Arab Emirates have agreed to normalise relations, it was announced on August 13, in a joint statement by President Donald Trump PM Binyamin Netanyahu and Abu Dhabi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Zayed.

The statement said that the “diplomatic breakthrough” was at “the request of President Trump,” and that Israel will “suspend declaring sovereignty over areas outlined in the President’s Vision for Peace and focus its efforts now on expanding ties with other countries in the Arab and Muslim world.”

ISRAEL and the UAE also said they will continue their efforts to “achieve a just, comprehensive and enduring resolution to the Israeli-[Arab] Palestinian conflict.”

This was Israel’s third peace accord with an Arab nation, after Egypt in 1979 and Jordan in 1994, and the third is with a Gulf Arab government.

The Netanyahu government has for some years maintained mutually advantageous, albeit informal security and economic ties, with the UAE and Saudi Arabia.

All three share with the Trump administration a common concern over Iran’s belligerent expansionist objectives in the region. Other Arab governments are expected to follow the UAE in normalising its ties with the Jewish state.

Trump tweeted: “HUGE breakthrough today! Historic Peace Agreement between our two GREAT friends, Israel and the United Arab Emirates!”

PM Netanyahu delivered an address to the nation later Thursday, in which he hailed the accord as ushering in a new era in Israel’s relations with the Arab world and a breakthrough moment for regional peace.

He announced that Israeli and UAE leaders and President Trump would soon meet at the White House to sign a formal peace treaty, one based on “peace in return for peace.”

Together, they strengthen the US-led front against Iran. Israel and the Emirates have much in common, Netanyahu pointed out, as innovative and forward-looking societies. He concluded with a “Salaam aleikum” greeting, and “Shalom”.

REACTIONS:

Pro-settlement leaders in his right-wing bloc expressed outrage over the Likud leader’s consent to suspend his sovereignty plan even for the sake of the historic accord with a key Gulf nation. Netanyahu replied that annexation had not been removed from the table but postponed at the request of President Trump.

He recalled that his pledge of sovereignty had always been contingent on consensus with the White House.

The UAE's ambassador to the US, Yousef Al Otaiba, a key mover in the negotiations leading to the accord, said in an earlier statement, "It is a significant advance in Arab-Israeli relations that lowers tensions and creates new energy for positive change."

Delegations from Israel and the UAE are expected to meet in the coming weeks to "sign bilateral agreements regarding investment, tourism, direct flights between Abu Dhabi and Tel Aviv, security, telecommunications, technology, energy, healthcare, culture, the environment, the establishment of reciprocal embassies, and other areas of mutual benefit."

"Opening direct ties between two of the Middle East's most dynamic societies and advanced economies will transform the region by spurring economic growth, enhancing technological innovation, and forging closer people-to-people relations," the statement also read.

President Trump said that the United Arab Emirates and Israel have agreed to establish full diplomatic ties as part of a deal to halt the annexation of "occupied" land sought by the Palestinians for their future state.

THIS LANDMARK DEAL CAME AT THE COST OF ISRAEL'S RIGHT TO ITS SOVEREIGN LAND.

The United Arab Emirates said that its deal to normalise relations with Israel was "a bold step" to secure a two-state solution to the long-running Israel-Palestinian conflict. But the Palestinian Authority refuses to meet with the Jews on this matter!

The militant group Hamas, which controls the Gaza Strip, called the deal by the Emiratis "a stabbing in the back of our people."

Abraham Accord Commissioned by The Higher Committee for Human Fraternity, The Abrahamic Family House is a collection of three religious spaces, a mosque, a synagogue and a church.

THE CHRISLAM FAMILY

The 'Abraham Accord' Will Connect Israel and Abu Dhabi where the Chrislam Headquarters known as the Abrahamic Faiths House that are located in Abu Dhabi.

The 'Abraham Accord' sent shock waves throughout the Bible Prophecy World, and the 'Abraham Accord' is the missing link the Vatican needs to complete its launch of Chrislam, otherwise known as the Abrahamic Faiths Initiative.

Chrislam may be the One World Religion of Revelation 13, which goes by many names. Whether they called it the 'Abraham Accord', the 'Abrahamic Family Initiative', or any such variation, it all means Chrislam.

Participants of the "Abrahamic Faiths Initiative" meet with Pope Francis.

Now we have in a direct political/spiritual/religious connection the Jews, the Muslims and the Roman Catholic Church, all working together to bring about the One World Religion and the false peace of antichrist.

THE JERUSALEM POST SAYS: The agreement announced today will include establishing embassies and exchanging ambassadors, investments into the Israeli economy, trade, direct flights between Tel Aviv and Abu Dhabi, an investment in Israeli efforts to develop a coronavirus vaccine – as first reported in The Jerusalem Post last month – and cooperation in matters of energy and water. An important element of the deal for the UAE is the expectation that its citizens would be able to visit the Al-Aksa mosque in Jerusalem.

PM Benjamin Netanyahu called the deal “full, formal peace” with “one of the strongest countries in the world.” “Together we can bring a wonderful future. It is an incomparably exciting moment,” Netanyahu said. “I have the great privilege to make the third peace treaty between Israel and an Arab country - the UAE.”

Netanyahu wished Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi Mohamed bin Zayed “Salam Aleykum, and Shalom Aleynu – peace unto you and peace unto us.”

"And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate." (Daniel 9:27 )

The 'Abraham Accord' announced this morning may be the culmination of all the work done by Rick Warren, Pope Francis and the Vatican in creating the One World Religion of Chrislam.

Chrislam has taken a giant step forward in realising the signing of what may one day soon, culminate in the 7-year covenant foretold in Daniel 9:27. We are that close!!

THE UAE-ISRAEL DEAL UPENDS RIGID ARAB CONVENTIONS ON MID-EAST PEACE.

An almost religious precept held by the Arab world was that no normal relations with Israel were allowed before Palestinian statehood was achieved within pre-1967 borders. That is until August 13, 2020, when the historic UAE-Israel deal brokered by the Trump administration turned it on its head.

The richest Gulf Arab nation dropped this condition without a murmur and formalised its long-standing undercover ties with the Jewish State.

Binyamin Netanyahu's predecessors and Western peace mediators were forced to haggle irresolutely over how much Israel must pay for peace with the Palestinians, before there could be any discussion of normal relations with the Arab world.

Suddenly, Abu Dhabi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Zayed (referred to as MbZ) and PM Binyamin Netanyahu were seen to be engaged in the regular give-and-take that precede any normal international deal.

PM Binyamin Netanyahu may pay in domestic support for putting on ice his plan to extend Israel sovereignty to the Jewish areas of the West Bank. Moreover, the Palestinian issue was pushed onto a back burner by the pressing coronavirus outbreak and serious economic fallout.

Prince Mohammed bin Zayed, leads an absolute Gulf monarchy over a federation of seven emirates consisting of Abu Dhabi (which serves as the capital), Ajman, Dubai, Fujairah, Ras Al Khaimah, Sharjah and Umm Al Quwain.

With a population of just one million citizens and some nine million foreign workers, the UAE, once a backwater, has emerged as one of the world's most flourishing economic centres, an international media hub, and an attractive tourist site.

It boasts an effective army with elite units and a strong air force as well as innovative capacity and high ambitions.

For many years, its regime has relied on close security ties with Israel and intelligence ties with the Mossad, the US and France.

The two countries share with the Trump administration, deep suspicions of Shiite Iran and its expansionist interventions in the region. Abu Dhabi and Tehran are also in dispute over Gulf islands.

The Emiratis' deal with Israel appears to have sharpened the profound religious-political divide in the region.

Egypt's Abdel Fattah al-Sisi, like Bahrain and Oman, approved the UAE's normalisation accord as beneficial to the region and peace, while Turkey along with Iran slammed it.

President Recep Erdogan said on Friday he is considering shutting Turkey's embassy in Abu Dhabi, recalling its ambassador and severing ties.

Like Egypt, the UAE, Saudi Arabia and most of the Gulf Arab governments while contesting Iran, also repudiate the Muslim Brotherhood.

Turkey champions this radical group and plays host to its Palestinian offshoot, Hamas.

In Yemen, the UAE and Saudi Arabia jointly lead a coalition that has been fighting the Iran-backed Houthi insurgents in an unresolved war for control of the country.

In line with MbZ's territorial aspirations, the UAE has been going it alone to move in on southern Yemen.

“But when these things begin to take place, straighten yourselves and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.’ And He told them a parable: ‘Look at the fig tree, and all the trees; when they put forth leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is now near. Likewise, when you see these things happening, recognise that the kingdom of God is near.” (Luke 21 28-31)
